

Do your conflict of interest policies apply to students, residents, and faculty while they rotate/work at outside hospitals/clinics?

Yes

Do the policies also apply to private clinician offices that trainees may rotate through?

No

Does your medical school have a conflict of interest curriculum for medical students, residents, and/or faculty? If so, please indicate to whom the curriculum is offered or required?

The [REDACTED] School of Medicine has a required curriculum for medical students. The [REDACTED] requires an annual COI attestation for employed physicians and a required curriculum for residents.

Is the medical school curriculum either offered OR required for medical students, residents, and/or faculty?

Please see above.

In what form is the curriculum presented?

For medical students, there are two sessions in the first two years of medical school that each include pre-work, a large group and a small group discussion. The titles are "Crossing Boundaries" and "Interactions with Industry".

For employed physicians and residents, the curriculum is delivered electronically.

Additional comments submitted:

Thank you for the opportunity to participate.