

Do your conflict of interest policies apply to students, residents, and faculty while they rotate/work at outside hospitals/clinics?

The policies apply to students, residents and faculty while they rotate at any hospital.

Do the policies also apply to private clinician offices that trainees may rotate through?

Yes.

Does your medical school have a conflict of interest curriculum for medical students, residents, and/or faculty? If so, please indicate to whom the curriculum is offered or required?

Yes. The medical school has a curriculum for medical students. It also reviews COI information during orientation for all incoming residents/fellows. The faculty are provided information about the curriculum.

Is the medical school curriculum either offered OR required for medical students, residents, and/or faculty?

Yes, it is required for medical students, residents and faculty.

In what form is the curriculum presented?

It is presented via a team-based learning environment for the medical students. For residents, it is offered as an online module, with discussion at orientation for all incoming residents/fellows. For faculty, links are provided.

Additional comments submitted: