

Do your conflict of interest policies apply to students, residents, and faculty while they rotate/work at outside hospitals/clinics?

Yes

Do the policies also apply to private clinician offices that trainees may rotate through?

No

Does your medical school have a conflict of interest curriculum for medical students, residents, and/or faculty?

Yes, faculty, non-faculty director and above, all researchers, individuals with contracting/purchasing authority, medical students and residents.

Is the medical school curriculum either offered OR required for medical students, residents, and/or faculty?

Required: Online Presentations/Learning Modules for faculty, non-faculty director and above, all researchers and individuals with contracting/purchasing authority

Required: All College of Medicine faculty, staff and trainees are required to complete training determined by the department chair and/or program director

Required: Live Lectures for medical students

Offered: Residents are offered COI training through their perspective department and the Vendor Policy for [REDACTED] is included in the House Officer Manual given to all residents

In what form is the curriculum presented?

Online presentations/learning modules, live lectures, policies in handbook

Additional comments submitted: